

Dipty Patel
Artisan & Founder of HoDPerfumes
Biography

Born in Croydon, South London, Dipty Patel has nurtured a career as a global events manager living out of a suitcase and working demanding hours for the last 14 years.

After a visit to a perfume stand at an event, where she was invited to create her own scent, Dipty reignited an old passion for perfume which had started as a teenager in her aunts reflexology and massage clinic. In 2014 Dipty travelled to Gallimard in Grasse, France, to work with a master perfumer and began creating her own scents.

HoD Perfumes launched in Spring 2014 with its signature scent N-Lyten. HoD Perfumes expanded to include a Spa Collection in 2015 and is looking to release a unisex fragrance in 2016.
